Rate of Interest on World Bank Loan for Water Supply and Sewerage

3317 SHRI PRAMOD MAHAJAN: Will the Minister of FINANCE be pleased to state:

(a) what is the rate of interest charged by the World Bank for the loans given to India for water supply and sewerage schemes in different cities;

(b) what is the rate of interest charged by the Central Government from the Bombay Municipal Corporation on loans for these schemes; and

(c) whether it is a fact that the Central Government charge high rate of interest compared to the original rate of interest charged by the World Bank; if so, what are the reasons therefor?

THE MINISTER OF STATE IN THE DEPARTMENT OF EXPENDITURE IN THE MINISTRY OF FINANCE (SHRI B. K GADHVI): (a) to (c) IBRD assistance is extended on variable rates of interest revised semi-annually in accordance with the cost of borrowing of the World Bank. The current rate of interest is 7.76 per cent. IDA assistance is interest free but carries a service charge of 0.75 per cent Commitment charges of 0 75 per cent and 0 5 per cent respectively are leviable on undisbursed balances under IBRD loans and IDA credits Funds received from the World Bank on account of externally aided projects are made available, to the State Governments concerned, under standard arrangements for passing on developmental assistance from the Centre to the States

No loan has been extended by the Government of India to the Bombay Municipal Corporation, in the context of World Bank assisted water supply and sewerage projects The question of the Central Government charging the BMC a higher rate of interest does not arise
